

Fall Gathering 2009

“Remember me O Lord, in thy kingdom”

SPEAKER:

KhouriyeH Juliana Schmemann

Juliana Schmemann grew up and was educated in France. Her family was dedicated to the Church and participated actively in church life. In 1943 she married Alexander Schmemann, a student at the theological academy in Paris. She has three children. Her daughters Anne and Mary are both married to priests and her son Serge is a correspondent for the New York Times. The family immigrated to the United States in 1951 and Father Alexander eventually became dean of St Vladimir's Seminary. Juliana taught French in the Spence School in New York City and later served as headmistress. Now she lives in Montreal near her daughter and her husband, Father John Tkachuk. She is the author of My Journey with Father Alexander and The Joy to Serve.
