

ON WEDNESDAY EVENINGS DURING GREAT LENT
FOLLOWING THE PRESANCTIFIED LITURGY
ECONOMOS ANTONY GABRIEL WILL PRESENT A LECTURE IN...

EASTERN ORTHODOX MYSTICISM

Based on his class, EASTERN ORTHODOX MYSTICISM AND CONTEMPORARY LITERATURE, which he taught at Mc Gill University for many years, THE LECTURES WILL explore the mystical themes that have emerged in contemporary Western literature via the East. Links to Eastern mysticism will be explored in past and present popular literary works. The Central problems of good and evil; the nature of humanity; freedom of will; the dignity of sexuality; the role of God in creation and the significance of Sanctification will be discussed at length.

Lecture will begin at the end of the Pre sanctified Liturgies commencing on February 17th and continuing every Wednesday evening through March 24th.
